DC - SR9: 1956-1960

[<sup>3</sup>Levy] stated that he never heard of CTO until 1963. He says that SR 9 was a small office & had CTO's name arisen, he would have known about it.

SR 9 was a special operations office involved in running clandestine operations in Soviet Union. During those years, SR 9 had only 1 or 2 assets w/i the Soviet Union. These individuals were Soviets.

SR 10 - designed to utilize ex-Soviets foreign travelers w/i USSR to try to recruit Soviet or support clandestine activities.

[<sup>3</sup>Levy] stated that SR 9 knew everything that SR 10 was doing, & he would've known about Oswald if Oswald worked for SR 9. Only exception to this was when SR 10 was doing something directly w/i which was not at all important. Anything important SR 10 would contact SR 9 for assistance. [<sup>3</sup>Levy] gave example of when SR 10 was trying to locate people in Soviet Union for a long time.

[<sup>3</sup>Levy] reviewed the 11/15/63 Corbin memo, & said he had never seen it before.

He added that Agency could not possibly have debriefed everyone of the thousands of people who traveled w/i USSR.

[<sup>3</sup>Levy] stated that CIA wouldn't have gotten to CTO because it . . . . . shall /.
